Wanted—A situation as a clerk by a colored man who understands his business. Apply at this office. may 20th

ALL SORTS!

—The city is again full of lawyers.

—Denver had a $500,000 fire yesterday.

—The Elko mining case has been postponed one month.

—Miss Francis Hodgkinson is spending a few days in this city.

—WANTED—A girl to do general housework. Apply at this office.

—Charlie Stoddard, the politician, is in town. This leaves the great East exposed.

—Mrs. Jennie Banning, (colored) wants a situation in a private family. Apply at this office.

—The APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of a dozen cucumbers raised in Wells Drury's garden.

Every once in a while that same old item bobs up to the effect that Mackay and Fair are on the same train together, coming West.

—McLoughlin & Hawkins have struck a fine flow of water by sinking an artesian well on Mr. Cagwin's premises in the Northern part of town.

—It is to the credit of the Southern people that not more than five of their thirty United States Senators have an income exceeding their salaries.—Chicago Tribune.

—It is stated that a Chinaman who leases a piece of land near Santa Rosa, Cal., and which he devotes to raising garden truck, has discharged all his Chinamen, and hired white help in their places.

—The APPEAL has just received a neat little instruction book, entitled "How to Draw." It seems to have been written by a novice, as it does not tell how to fill a flush or fish in the deck for the other ace.

—Why families should buy none but Cohn's butter:

It is made by white labor.

You can always get it fresh.

It is full weight.

Each roll stamped. COHN.

Ask your grocer for it and take no other.

—In no other medical preparation have the results of the most intelligent study and scientific inquiry been so steadily and progressively utilized as in Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases.

—The Virginia Chronicle, on Saturday printed on its fourth page, a fac-simile of the Declaration of Independence. It is worth framing.

It was furnished through the courtesy of a descendant of old Thomas Jefferson, and reproduced from an old copy lying about the house.

—No injurious effects can follow the Use of Ayer's Ague Cure in the treatment of malarial diseases. It contains, besides a specific and unfailing antidote for miasmatic poison; other remedial agents which unite to expel the poisonous humors, purify the system and leave it in a healthy and invigorated condition.

—Mrs. A. W. Brockaw, of Grotton, Brown Co. Dakota, used Allcock's Plasters for fifteen years—completely cured of irregularity by using two Plasters across the small of the back for seven days each month—also found them very efficacious in Kidney Trouble—cured of a dull, heavy pain and pressure at the base of the brain by wearing an Allcock's Poreus Plaster at the back of the neck.

Meat.

The main thing in life is good grub. A man who knows how to pick out the right cuts in a butcher shop gets along all right. The next best thing is to have honest butchers to pick them out for you and chalk the correct score on the board. Dies & Leonhard are the men who do this same thing.

The Inquest on Hogan.

The inquest on the death of Curley Hogan was held in the Justice Court yesterday.

Several witnesses testified to the killing, but nothing of interest was elicited beyond what was already published. The jury found that the deceased came to his death by a pistol shot fired by William Crow.

The Sutherland Case.

Judge Sabin gave his decision in the Sutherland case yesterday. It sustained the allegations made in the complaint of Ellis and Doran, and refused to vacate the order of arrest.

A LEGAL TECHNICALITY.

Which Proved Quite Advantageous to Constable Hawthorne.

Yesterday Constable Hawthorne, found guilty of assaulting a negro named Martin, came up before Judge Lang to be sentenced. As his Honor was about to fix the fine Mr. Bartine, attorney for the accused, interposed an objection, and denied the right of the Court to fix any sentence, as the limit of time had elapsed wherein the Court could act.

The law provides that the Court cannot sentence in less than two hours nor more than two days after the finding of guilty.

The Court stated that he considered Sunday a non-judicial day, and when a legal holiday fell on Sunday, Monday was the non-judicial day also.

The defendant's counsel cited numerous authorities on the subject, and finally the Court was compelled to yield, and the prisoner was discharged with a scathing lecture on his abuse of authority and quick temper. The accused listened attentively, and the words of the Court seemed to have a good effect.

Sheriff Crisler thought as Judge Lang did, and on Sunday lost his per diem by not appearing in Court.

Mistaken for Incendiaries

Judge Harris, a dentist of Grass Valley, is in the city for a few days.

The Judge met with quite a queer experience in Truckee. He came there a few weeks ago to upholster a tooth, in company with Judge Atwood, when as luck would have it the fire in Chinatown broke out. They went away and in a few days returned. Inside an hour another fire broke out and some one jokingly said that the two strangers must be incendiaries. The talk spread around the town until the feeling ran so high that a committee met and sent the two gentlemen a note requesting them to leave town. Judge Atwood thought the matter over and seeing how things stood, started up the railroad track. Judge Harris vowed that nobody should ever make him leave town against his will but some one advised him to go to save his life and he finally followed Judge Atwood. After he left, the man who started the story as a joke, explained, and a posse of citizens started out to scour the woods and tender the two gentlemen the apologies of the town on a silver platter but they could not be found. Judge Harris left for Virginia City last night.

A Cunning Fox.

Yesterday morning Cal Knapp coming into his chicken yard found a fox lying dead on the ground. The animal seemed to have just died and Knapp's first impulse was to take him by the tail and throw him over the fence. He finally concluded to take it in the house and show it to his family, and then skin it. His wife held it in her lap a while remarking that the body was still warm and the child suddenly some one opened a window and like a flash the fox leaped from Mrs. Knapp's lap and bounded for the window. He fell about an inch short and the window was closed. After some lively chasing about the house Reynard was caught and in an hour or so he became quite docile. Knapp gave him to Chauncy Dake, and he is now on exhibition at the saloon.

Holstein in Demand.

The APPEAL has received a circular from Thomas B. Wales of Iowa City, Society of the Holstein Friesian Association in which he wishes it stated that the Association proposes to hold a gigantic fat cattle show in Chicago, in the Fall and will pay a liberal price for Holstein grade steers or barren cows, for the purpose of fattening them for the big show. Anyone with Holstein grades that they do not want can get the cash for them by communicating with the above address. The Holstein Cattle show in Chicago will cost a million dollars. This looks as if the Association meant business.

Hogan's Funeral.

Curley Hogan was buried on Monday in Empire and his remains were escorted to the grave by a large number of people. Some years ago he expressed a wish to be buried in Empire, where he was once in business and had a great many friends.

An Anonymous Cur.

Every small town breeds some sneaking whelp who makes anonymous attacks upon peoples reputation.

Recently, Senator Stewart received an anonymous letter from one of this strain of curs, attacking Mr. Fairbanks, editor of the Lyon County Times, and his wife. It was the work of a small souled man with all the sneaking proclivities and not half the courage of a coyote.

Mr Stewart gave the letter to Mr. Fairbanks who published it in full to show how little either he or his wife regarded it. The reply by Mr. Fairbanks would make a man go off and hang himself, but it will be lost, we imagine, upon the party who penned the lying letter.

Fairbanks is doing good work for the Republican cause in Dayton, and as Senator Stewart remarked, "He must be making the hair fly with those scallawags or they never would make such a mean attack on him."

DeLesseps a Barbarian.

According to a French paper the Count DeLesseps was foretold by an ancient Egyptian oracle. It says: "Herodotus relates that when Geo. King of Egypt, undertook the work of uniting the waters of the Mediterranean and Red Seas by means of a canal, 620,000 men perished in the work. He then caused the work to be stopped, and consulted an oracle, receiving the reply, 'A barbarian shall finish thy work.' The gentleman who alighted upon that bit of history copied on a sheet of paper the paragraph from Herodotus and carried it to DeLesseps, who, having read it, took his pen and appended, 'The barbarian prophesied by the oracle — F. DeLesseps.'"

Burial of J. F. Adams.

J. F. Adams was buried from his late residence yesterday at 9 o'clock. The railroad shops were closed out of respect to the deceased and the employees attended in a body. The pall bearers were A. Lepper, C. N. Lincoln, J. F. Tranter, W. L. Wolley, P. Doyle, E. Mullaly, E. Singleton and A. Fife. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Dorsey sang: "Just as I Am" and "Go Bury Thy Sorrows." Rev. Geo. R. Davis read the burial service. A large concourse of people accompanied the remains to the grave.

—Tower City, Dakota, has a water supply from a remarkable artesian well, the nature of which seems to deserve close examination by geologists on the spot. When the earth was penetrated 500 feet salt water was obtained. Twenty feet further down a gravelly stratum was struck, yielding also salt water. After boring down 604 feet fresh water mixed with quicksand came up. Now, from a depth of 675 feet, there is a flow of pure potable water of steadily increasing quantity.

—For the best horse liniment now in the market go to Doc. Benton. It is his own make, and warranted to beat all the fancy brands. July 6th
